

Like many of you, I have roots in California's Central Valley.

I know it's a special place where kids can grow up healthy and strong.

That's because of Children's Hospital Central California.

They provide fantastic doctors, nurses and technology for the most important kids in the world - yours.

So join me in supporting Children's Hospital Central California.

Your Children's Hospital.

Amazing People. Incredible Care.

Actor & Spokesperson for Children's Hospital Central California

Serving the Valley's kids since 1952, Children's Hospital is one of the ten largest hospitals of our type in the nation.
Our specialists bring their knowledge to life at the side of a child's bed, where world-class training, experience and technology meet in a one-on-one effort to heal.
