...Picture Yourself In Educational Employees Credit Union!

No matter how you're associated with schools, you're probably eligible for membership in Educational Employees Credit Union. And that means you're entitled to all the benefits that have made EECU the largest credit union based in the San Joaquin Valley, over 152,000 members strong. Lower rates on loans and Visa cards...higher rates on Share Certificates and other investments. Plus the kind of service you've never experienced in any other type of financial institution. After all, at EECU you're not just a customer, you're a member!
